Suzanne Collins had no idea what was in store for her when she left for Italy. Expecting a quiet visit with her father, she never dreamed she would end up falling in love with his business partner!

But Jared Caine was irresistible. His charm, his consideration, his sensual looks were devastating, while his European sophistication immediately swept Suzanne off her feet.

Was she out of her league, as her stepmother implied? And could she hope to compete successfully against the attractions of the worldly Angelina Sorveno, his current companion? Suzanne was determined not only to try--but to win!
